

San Francisco Conservatory of Music Media Consent and Release for Students

This Media Consent and Release Policy for Students provides the San Francisco Conservatory of Music (“SFCM”) with consent by its enrolled students to use photographs and recordings of concerts presented by SFCM performing groups/organizations as a part of SFCM’s academic concert calendar, as well as master classes, lessons and other activities and events photographed and/or recorded in connection with SFCM and its not-for-profit educational mission.

The term “Media” as used in this policy shall mean and include: Any and all recordings of concerts, master classes, lessons, lectures, other instructional content, and/or performances given by SFCM Artists, as well as related news releases, promotional materials, and other related content generated or created at, by or through SFCM, in print, photograph, CD, DVD, tape, film, audio, video, computer chip, radio, television, cable or satellite broadcast, the World Wide Web or otherwise on the Internet, or in any other form now or later known or developed.

SFCM reserves all rights to Media consistent with the SFCM’s Copyright Policy. Photographs of students, as well as their name, voice, or likeness, may be used by SFCM in Media consistent with SFCM policies. SFCM shall retain a perpetual, irrevocable, fully paid-up, royalty-free, non-exclusive, world-wide license to use the Media not owned by it under its Copyright Policy, for SFCM’s not-for-profit educational mission.

Students release SFCM, its assigns, licensees, and successors from any and all claims, losses, or liabilities arising from or relating to use of the Media and/or Artist’s name, voice, photograph, or likeness, consistent with SFCM policies.

By accepting an offer of admission to SFCM, students agree to be bound by the terms of this policy.
