Graduate applicants should confirm their acceptance of admission by April 15, and undergraduate applicants should confirm by May 1. If you receive your admission letter after May 1, please mail this enrollment form within two weeks of receipt.

Your rights and responsibilities: In accordance with the Code of Ethics of both the National Association of Schools of Music and the National Association for College Admission Counseling, you should not feel pressured by any institution to pay a deposit or make a commitment before these dates. If an institution requests a commitment to either an offer of admission or an offer of financial assistance before the appointed dates, you may request an extension in writing.

It is your responsibility to notify all schools to which you have been admitted of your decision to accept or reject their offers.
